Regulatory Review: Practicing Within the Law

Webinar Presenter: Arturo Ramudo, CPA

Tuesday, April 24, 2012 – Noon - 2:00 p.m. Pacific Time

This course addresses the various provisions of the California Accountancy Act and the California Board of Accountancy Regulations with an emphasis on those provisions currently applicable to the practice of public accountancy. Further, this course provides an overview of historic and recent disciplinary actions taken by the Board, highlighting the misconduct that led to discipline.

Upon completion of this two-hour course, you will be able to:

- Apply the Board's rules and regulations to everyday practice
- Avoid discreditable acts that could result in Board discipline
- Identify events which must be reported to the Board
- Avoid commission and contingent fee impairments
- Meet the Board's new peer review requirements

About the presenter:

Arturo Ramudo, CPA, CISA, a former Board of Accountancy investigator, is a nationally-recognized public speaker, researcher, and seminar leader with almost 25 years of experience in ethics, standards of practice, and internal quality control. Mr. Ramudo owns and operates his own public accountancy firm offering services to both the public and private sectors. He represents CPAs before the California Board of Accountancy's disciplinary committee, provides litigation support, performs peer reviews, and offers advisory services concerning all aspects of ethical practice.
