

Table of Contents

So you want to sell your practice?	1
Some reasons people sell their practices.....	1
Pre-sale considerations.....	1
Pricing philosophy	1
Do you need a business opportunity broker?	2
Do you need an attorney?	2
Negotiating strategy	2
Who are your potential buyers?.....	3
When do you plan to sell your practice?.....	3
What is the approximate value of your firm, and what is your minimum price?	3
Will the seller exclude any clients from the sale?	3
Who will be your lead negotiator?.....	3
What furniture and equipment go with the practice?.....	3
Retention and billing rates.....	4
Billing rates.....	4
Location and relocation	4
Capacity of buyer to service clients	4
Fit with clients.....	4
Knowledge	4
Financial strength.....	5
Criminal report on buyer	5
Stability	5
Non-compete agreements	5
Violation of the covenant	5
Partial sale	5
How might you do a partial sale?.....	6
Merging employees.....	6
Employer/employee non-compete agreements	6
Partners and partnerships are allowed non-compete agreements.....	7
Due diligence	7
Work papers.....	7
Loyalty and average age of the client base	8
Financial data.....	8
Staff.....	8
The office	8
Travel	8
Disclosure requirements	8
Summary disclosure allowed	8

Factors affecting sales price	9
Net profits.....	10
Gross revenues.....	10
Down payment	11
Location	11
Services mix.....	11
Client characteristics	11
California practice sales in 2012	13
Tax considerations of the sale.....	15
When part of the sales price is a consulting contract	17
Sales tax	17
Installment sales	17
Sales price based on revenue received	18
Sell your practice to a child? Probably a bad idea	18
Keep the practice and semi-retire	19
The office-sharing succession.....	19
Internal succession.....	20
Smoothing the transition.....	20
Additional keys to making the sale work.....	20
Alert your clients and be honest	21
Be selective	21
Do it in steps	21
Meeting with clients.....	21
Current market conditions.....	22
How much are tax/accounting practices selling for now?	22
How long does it take to sell a tax/accounting practice?.....	24
Moving your practice out of state.....	24
Tax consequences	24
What will you owe California?.....	24
Sale of partnership interest	26
Sale of practice while a nonresident	27
Covenant not to compete	29
19 fatal mistakes to avoid when selling your practice	30