Here's what your subscription includes

- A searchable database so you can solve California tax problems online
- A monthly newsletter
- Breaking news and podcast transcripts — plus analysis

"In a word, 'invaluable!' I can't imagine calling myself a professional without the ongoing support of Spidell behind me. In particular, the California Taxletter is the ONLY publication I read faithfully."

— Deborah St. Martin, EA; Beaumont, CA

From Lynn Freer, EA, Publisher

In each issue, you will find at least two ways to:

- Save your clients tax dollars
- Save you time
- Keep you and your clients out of trouble

I will refund 100% of your subscription price if we don't keep this promise!

Here are a few examples of recent helpful articles, and some older ones still critical today:

- FTB looking at charity, employee business expense, and travel and entertainment deductions
- New POA rules again
- How to walk away from a California LLC or corporation
- Use the 546-day rule to be taxed as a nonresident
- Out-of-state LLCs doing business in California

Will California conform to tax reform changes? No

Get detailed updates in each month's issue addressing the questions:

- Will we conform?
- How will we handle the differences?
- What's happening with Schedule CA?
- Will California's attack on disallowance of state tax work?
