

Tax Reform Act (H.R. 1) Seminar

Explanation and new planning opportunities

Seminar Price
$259

Understand the changes and new planning techniques

- Maximize the IRC §199A deduction (20% deduction for passthrough entities):
 - See how it applies to Schedule Cs as well
 - Find the tipping point for an S corporation with shareholder wages and profits
 - Consider avoiding bonus depreciation to maximize the deduction
 - Rethink guaranteed payments
 - Plan dispositions with IRC §199A in mind
 - Take home a flowchart to easily see who qualifies
- Reconsider choosing a C versus an S corporation in light of the changes
- Be ready to consult divorcing clients about the loss of the alimony deduction
- Take home new planning tips for the loss of exemption deductions and new child and family credits
- Help sales employees negotiate with the company for the loss of employee business expenses

- Learn all about the new law, including loss of itemized deductions, moving expenses, entertainment expenses, reduction in NOLs, and depreciation changes, including auto expensing

- Find a way to eliminate the pain of the loss of the state tax deduction
- See how California nonconformity will look on next year's tax return
